

WHY JOIN THE REMODELORS™ COUNCIL?

As a member of the MBA of Pierce County Remodelors™ Council you will automatically become a member of the NAHB Remodelors™ Council.

The Remodelors™ Council represents and serves the interests of its remodeling industry members. The Remodelors Council is committed to improved management and technical competency of council members, excellence in service to the consumer, and effective government representation of remodelers' interests at the federal, state and local levels.

NAHB works in partnership with MBA of Pierce County Remodelors Councils and more than 150 other NAHB-affiliated state and local builders' associations, the council provides information, certification, education, and recognition programs geared to keeping remodeler members competitive.

The Remodelors™ Council of Pierce County is an active group of over 100 members working together to build the community and strengthen the individual members of the council
